

FULL TIME BRANCH MANAGER

This is an opportunity for an experienced, upward motivated loan officer/manager, loan processor, or personal banker to join our team. Maybe you have been at another credit union or bank for years and there has not been an opportunity to move up to the next level. At My Credit Union, we create opportunities for local, community involved leaders to come on board with us. We are involved in many community events, charities and support our surrounding city employees and local law enforcement as well. We need new employees who can help the branch teams to the next level. You will be handling car & consumer loans, title processing, credit union member checking, savings, CD accounts, payroll deposits, debit cards with multiple office duties. Helping with the accomplishment of branch goals, marketing and organization mission by completing and reporting related results.
